

WITH the bad weather we've had this summer, there hasn't been much chance to visit the seaside, but don't despair, the talented Chideock Players give us the opportunity to do it from the comfort of the Chideock Village Hall when they reveal the hilarious antics of a beach hut holiday by the sea this weekend.

Sand Castles is written by Bob Larbey, co-writer of the classic BBC comedy The Good Life, and was commissioned by BT for its BT Biennial 2000 project.

Set at the seaside, the cosy world of beach hut owners, William & Margaret and Stan & Bernice is disturbed when the Wooderson family don't arrive for their annual stay.

It's been rented instead to Doug and his nubile nieces and suddenly everything they know and love is thrown into chaos.

The play, which features regulars, Nick Baker, Taz Moore, Keith Readings, Catherine Batten, Mary Ann Rimer, Chris Lambert, Leigh Conley, Di Dowle, Sali Douglas-Watson, Moira Lucas, Debra Bates and Pat Anderson, also includes Natalie Gale making her debut for the Players.

There are still some tickets available for the show which takes place at the Chideock Village Hall this Thursday 19th, Friday 20th and Saturday 21st July.

Performances start at 7:30pm with tickets costing £5 for adults, £3 for under 16s and full time students, and are available from the Spar Shop and The Clock House in Chideock, Hilary Baker on 01297 489555 or on the door.

So get on down there and enjoy some summer laughs to drive the blues away!

N.B. Natalie Gale didn't make her debut for the players in this show but Alyssa West did!
